This edited songbook includes the 285 most commonly sung songs in Sahaja Yoga world-wide (in the experience of the editors!). The full songbook would now be at least twice as large!

New features of the 2025 edition are the linked indexes (in the pdf - including the one above) which take you to the page with a click (and a 'Back to Index' link on each page); and the 'Songs for Chakras and Deities' index on page 9.

'Jai' has been replaced throughout the book with 'Jay' (which is the correct Sanskrit transliteration).

Keys: A higher pitch is often better for loud collective singing, so one may need to place the Capo on the 2nd or 3rd fret. However good keys for men may be a bit high for women!

Sanskrit, Hindi and Marathi Pronunciation

Sanskṛit, Hindi and Marāṭhi are all written in Devanāgarī –'the Language of the Deities'. IPA symbols are in square brackets (italicised) [aː].

1 Vowels. The symbols ā, ī and ū are used for long vowels. Short a and long ā are different sounds; long ī and ū are the short sounds lengthened.

- Short a [ə] is hard because it is so short; as the u in but [bət] or a in local [ləʊkəl] and never hard as in bat [bæt]. It is like saying the consonant without any vowel; Ganapati is 'g-n-p-ti' roughly like 'gunner-putty'.
- Long ā [aː] as in cart *[kaːt], master (UK style) [maːstə] or Aachen [aːkən]
- Long ī as in beet [biːt]. Short i as in bit [bɪt].
- Long ū as in pool *[puːl]. (eg Mūlādhāra) Short u as in pull *[pʊl], not as fun - which is short a (unless you come from Yorkshire!).
- O is always long, as in modem [məʊdem], and never short as in modern. So Moksha is pronounced 'moke-sha'; Om rhymes with 'home'.
- E is always long in Sanskrit (med- like English 'maid' [meɪd]), but can be short in Hindi and Marathi. Eka sounds like English 'acre'. Words ending in e are pronounced long é.
- au and ai are diphthongs; au as 'proud' [praʊd] and ai as 'pride'. [praɪd].
- Apostrophe is used for a missing letter (Gan'ādim = Gana-ādim).
- Hyphen + Apostrophe is a dropped a at the start of the next word so the vowel is lengthened (namaste-'stu = namaste-astu).

2 Consonants

The symbols for the cerebral consonants (with the tip of the tongue against the roof of the mouth) ṭ, ṭh, ḍ, ḍh, ṇ, ḷ and ṣh are not used in the Songbook, partly because this is how westerners pronounce them anyway. (Gaṇeśha, Īḍā Nāḍī, Gondaḷi, etc.

3 There are no labial fricatives (th, v, f) in Sanskrit: Th is an aspirated t as in boaťhook (Aťharva, granthi). Ph is aspirated p as in 'top-hat' (phala – 'fruit') but can be f in Hindi. Both v and w are used but are the same letter. Normally w is used when compounded (twam, swāmī) and v when on its own (Shiva, Viṣhṇu). The sound is halfway between v and w like 'vw' i.e. tvwam, or saying 'w' with the top teeth touching the lower lip.

4 Final ḥ as in namah, namaḥ or namahª is an aspiration of the final vowel and not a full extra syllable. It normally sounds like nam.ha.

5 ṛ is a vowel, usually written ṛi, as in ṛitam or Kṛishna and sometimes ṛu, as in amṛut or gṛuha (in IAST written Kṛṣna, amṛt, gṛha). Be aware that there is no full vowel sound after the ṛ.

r as a vowel or a consonant should be rolled in the Scottish manner with the tongue curled back and and not with the English tendency to elongate the vowel and drop the r (ie. 'sarva' being pronounced 'saava').

6 The composite letter jñ is written gñy (eg. Āgñyā, gñyāna -'knowledge'). It is pronounced –gya with the g nasalised. In Marathi it sounds more like dñy and is written this way in Marathi songs.

g is always pronounced as in begin and not as in vegetable, which is j.

7 s is always unvoiced, ie. like hiss and not his.

8 In Hindi and Marathi short a at the end of words and before long syllables is dropped so Rāma becomes Rām, Sulabhā becomes Sulbhā etc. This is not done in Sanskrit. This vestigial a is sometimes written as a full stop, as in sab.ko.

9 In many Hindi words (hai, me, guruo, etc.) the final vowel is nasalised vowel (haiñ –'is', meñ –'in', -oñ –'plural ending (guruoñ –'gurus'). These are written with a wavy line over (mẽ, guruõ).

10 In Marathi j is pronounced like z, so 'jog.wa' sounds like 'zog.wa', and ch sounds like tz. They are sometimes spelled that way in this book.

11 All other letters are pronounced roughly as in English.

Am G Am Na jāyā na vidyā na vṛittīr mameva,
Am G Dm Am Gatis-tvam gatis-tvam Twam-ekā Bhavānī.

Father, Mother, Spouse, Children, Friends, none of these are really mine.
Knowledge, intellect, mind and will power are also not eternal.
O Mother of the Universe - You are my only saviour, my eternal refuge.

Bhavābdhā vapāre mahāduḥkha bhīru,
Prapāta prakāmī pralobhī pramattah.
Kusansāra pāsha prabhaddha sadāham,
Gatis-tvam gatis-tvam Twam-ekā Bhavānī.

I have fallen in the ocean of birth and death, and I fear their sorrows.
I am trapped by my ego, with its countless desires, greed, pride and lust.

Na jānāmi dānam, na cha dhyāna yogam,
Na jānāmi tantram, na cha stotra mantram.
Na jānāmi pūjām, na cha nyāsa yogam,
Gatis-tvam gatis-tvam Twam-ekā Bhavānī.

O Mother, I do not know how to come close to You. I know no Puja or prayers, or how to worship You at all. Help me, O Mother Divine ...

Na jānāmi punyam, na jānāmi tīrtham,
Na jānāmi mutkīm, layam vā kadāchit.
Na jānāmi bhatkīm, vratam vāpi mātah,
Gatis-tvam gatis-tvam Twam-ekā Bhavānī.

I know no holiness or Your sacred abode. I know no liberation or dissolving my ego. I know no devotion or how to make vows to You....

Kukarmī, kusangī, kubuddhi, kudāsah,
Kulāchāra hīnah, kadāchāra līnah.
Kudṛishtih, kuvākya, prabandaḥ sadāham,
Gatis-tvam gatis-tvam Twam-ekā Bhavānī.

My mind is ever engaged in bad thoughts and actions. My intellect has become dull, enslaved by habits. I no honour and my intentions are self-serving. My speech is harsh and hurtful. Save me, O Mother of the Universe ....

Prajesham, Ramesham, Mahesham, Suresham,
Dinesham Nishīteshwaram vā kadāchit.
Na jānāmi chānyat sadāham sharanye,
Gatis-tvam gatis-tvam Twam-ekā Bhavānī.

O Goddess Supreme! Brahma, Vishnu, Shiva, Indra, Chandra or Surya I do not know. I know no other shelter from the fires of life but You.

Vivāde, vishāde, pramāde, pravāse,
Jāle chānale, parvate, shatru madhye.
Aranye sharanye sadā mā prapāhi,
Gatis-tvam gatis-tvam Twam-ekā Bhavānī.

O Compassionate Mother, please protect me always, in debate and in danger, in excitement and grief, at home and in alien lands, amidst water and fire, on mountain and forest, among enemies, everywhere, and in all places.

Anātho daridro jarā roga-yukto,
Mahākshīna dīnaḥ sadā jādya vaktrah.
Vipattau pravishtaḥ pranashtaḥ sadāham,
Gatis-tvam gatis-tvam Twam-ekā Bhavānī.

O Mother, I am an orphan on this Earth, powerless and without inner wealth, deluded by ignorance and unable to see the light of truth.
I bow eternally at Your Feet; O Mother of all existence, You alone are my refuge.

Lord of the Dance

English 2

E Dance, dance, wherever you may be
E B I am the Lord of the Dance, said He
E And I'll lead you all wherever you may be
B E A E And I'll lead you all in the dance, said He

(CHORUS) (x2)

E I danced in the morning when the world was begun
E B I danced with the moon and the stars and the sun
E I came down from heaven and I danced on the Earth
B E A E At Bethlehem I had my birth

E I danced for the scribe and the pharisee
E B But they wouln't dance and they wouldn't follow Me
E I danced for the fishermen, for James and John
B E A E And they came to Me and the dance went on

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
The 'holy people' they said it was a shame
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high
And left me there on a cross to die

I danced in the morning when the sky turned black
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone ...
But I am the dance and I still go on

They cut me down and I leapt up high
I am the life that will never never die
I'll live in you, if you'll live in Me
I am the Lord of the dance, said He

Morning Prayer

English 61

May I this day, be what You'd have me be
May I this day, say what You'd have me say
May I this day, be part and parcel of the whole
And may my thoughts be of a realised soul

May I this day, have love for all mankind
Shri Mataji, be in my heart and in my mind

Mary Shri Mataji

English 62

G Em C D There is a certain lady, whom all of us adore
Am D She's pure and kind, in Her you'll find
G Em Yourself and something more
C D And though we searched in many ways
G Em 'Twas Her we waited for
C D G Em She said that She just could not bear our torture anymore
C D G Em (2nd C D G) And Mary Shri Mataji is Her Name (x2)

G Em C D She stands there with a message
Am D For the old man and the youth
G Em As graciously She bows to all the seekers of the truth
C D There's those who fail to hear Her
G Em There's those who turn away
C D G Em There's those of us who'll follow Her until our dying day
C D G Em (2nd C D G) And Mary Shri Mataji is Her Name (x2)

She pours love on Her children, like no Mother ever could
She's told us all our bad dreams are now gone away for good
And well do we remember the magic moment when
She said that we could rise in love and never fall again
And Mary Shri Mataji is Her Name (x2)

She's given us a reason, where none there seemed to be
She's given us each other in a whole new family
She's told us how the mountains meditate upon the sea
She made at least one person see his own stupidity
And Mary Shri Mataji is Her Name (x2)

She shares with us Her vision of how this world can be
She's told us there will come a day when people shall be free
She's shown us how religion is a mist before our eyes
And God's just too amazing for mere men to organize
And Mary Shri Mataji is Her Name (x4)

Be Thou My Vision

English 63

Be Thou my vision, O Queen of my heart,
Naught be all else to me, save that Thou art,
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my wisdom, be Thou my true word;
I ever with Thee, Thou with me, Lord;
Thou my great Mother, I Thy true son;
Thou in me dwelling, and I with Thee one.

Be Thou my battle shield, my sword for the fight,
Be Thou my dignity, Thou my delight;
Thou my soul's shelter, Thou my high tower;
Raise Thou me heaven-ward, O Power of my Power.

Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise,
Thou my inheritance, now and always;
Thou and Thou only, first in my heart,
High Queen of Heaven, my treasure Thou art.

Goddess of Heaven, after victory won,
May I reach Heaven's joys, O bright Heaven's Sun!
Heart of my heart, whatever befall,
Still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

Que buen! Que buen trabajo ha costado

Gracias, gracias, Madre! Por empenarte tanto
Para que nosotros, Tus ninos amados
De aqui, al fin aqui ... Hallamos llegado!

Que Viva Mataji!

Spanish 2

Entre flores, emociones y alegrias
Nacio en nosotros la madre del amor
Solo en dios pudiera haber tanta belleza
Y es imposible que pueda haber dos
Y todo el mundo sabe que es verdad
Y ya todos la quieren adorar

Por eso se oye este refran: Que viva Mataji! (CHORUS)
La gente canta con fervor: Que viva Mataji!
La vida tiene otro color Que viva Mataji!
Llego y todo lo cambio, Mataji es la mejor!

En los dias luminosos de los pujas
Todos los ninos juntos frente a su altar
Sonriente y bondadosa, ella dispone

Con esa gracia de diosa maternal
El mundo con su brisa vibra ya
Empieza a despertar la humanidad

Que bonito es ser un sahaja yogi
Nadie resiste a ser un hermano mas
Y que bello es entregarse y renacer
Y cantar bhajans hasta el amanecer
Mataji ha siempre sido y sera
Eterna madre nuestra sin igual
